

Colorado Railin'

Sept.25-Oct.1,2017

Sept. 25 Oklahoma City to Trinidad, CO

The whistle will blow early morning, our locomotive (AKA chartered motorcoach) will be pulling out of the Oklahoma City station headed to Colorado. Spend our first day getting acquainted with our tour director, driver and new friends.

Late afternoon arrive in Trinidad for our first overnight. Dinner on our own.

Sept. 26 Trinidad to Colorado Springs, CO

Canon City will be our first stop this morning, the sight of the Royal Gorge, one of the most spectacular canyons in the world, and the Royal Gorge Bridge, the world's highest suspension bridge. There will be time to walk across the bridge and enjoy the area before our first train ride. All aboard the Incline Railway. The railway travels from the top of the canyon to the bottom. The Arkansas River that appears to be a small stream from the top turns into a raging river below, serenity and adventure are what this ride offers. We continue to Colorado Springs for our second train, Pikes Peak Cog Railway. The world's highest cog railway takes visitors on an unforgettable and panoramic trip to the 14, 100 foot summit of America's most famous mountain. Afterwards, visit Manitou Springs, truly a step back in time, nestled in the foothills of Pikes Peak. CB,MR

Sept. 27 Colorado Springs to Denver, CO

AM Visit Colorado Spring attractions to include: Air Force Academy Chapel (if available), Garden of the Gods. Air Force Academy Chapel, this 17 spire chapel is the focal point of the Academy. It houses Catholic, Jewish and Protestant Chapels as well as non-denominational meeting room for cadets of other faiths. Garden of the Gods, filled with wonders of nature, the Garden known for the magnificent red sandstone rock formations is also home to an abundance of plants and wildlife. Our afternoon and evening will be spent in Denver the city known as the Mile High City and is also the Colorado State Capital.

Sept. 28 Denver to Grand Junction,CO

The train whistle is still sounding and conductor will be waiting in Denver, where we board AMTRAK for our ride across the top of the state.

As we travel we will have our own personal picture window on the beauty of Colorado and the majestic Rockies. Overnight in Grand Junction, the gateway to western Colorado. CB,D

Sept. 29 Grand Junction to Durango,CO

Our most famous train ride will be our final ride on our trip. The Durango & Silverton

Narrow Gauge Railroad journeys through the most spectacular mountains in Colorado, the majestic San Juans. Relive the days of gold and silver strikes, railroad empires, and the romantic Victorian West. Some of the cars are open air, weather permitting, you will enjoy riding in one while breathing the fresh mountain air and getting a birds eye view of the wildlife.

Late afternoon arrive Durango. CB,D

Sept. 30 Durango to Albuquerque, NM

The rail portion of our trip has been completed at this point, but not the fun and interesting places. Santa Fe weaves her magic spell, just as she has for nearly 400 years. Enchantment awaits us in this Old World city that time seems to have forgotten. Depart Santa Fe early afternoon finding ourselves in Albuquerque in time to witness an Albuquerque sunset. An amazing ending to our trip would be to experience a famous Albuquerque sunset. CB,MR

Oct. 1 Albuquerque to Oklahoma City

As we return to Oklahoma, we may find the weather still a bit warm. But as we share the details of our trip with our friends and loved ones we may find we recapture the comfort of the cool weather and the pleasure of the beauty.....all memories that last forever. CB
