Oct. 1 -- Today brings more autumn colors as we travel to Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan the heart of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. A Soo Locks Cruise is on the agenda this afternoon. The Soo Locks are some of the busiest in the world, allowing ocean going vessels passage between Lake Huron and Lake Superior, Our cruise takes us thru the busy harbor area and the locks. After the Locks cruise, we're headed for Canada, where our next two nights will be in Sault Ste. Marie, ON. Passports required CB

Oct. 2-Breakfast included. Today we'll take an excursion into the heart of the Canadian Wilderness on the Agawa Canyon Train. Our rail journey takes us into the unspoiled forests and hills of Algoma region. A two-hour stop at scenic Agawa Canyon Park will allow time to enjoy Mother Nature's artwork and snap pictures for those scrapbooks. Box lunch provided today. Overnight in Sault Ste. Marie, ON. CB, L

Oct. 3 -- Breakfast included. The short drive to Mackinaw City this morning includes traveling across Mackinaw Bridge, the largest suspension bridge in the nation with a view of Lake Huron on one side and Lake Michigan on the other. The ferry will carry us to an area of Michigan that seems to have escaped the change to modern times, Mackinac Island. The island is Michigan's most photographed and talked about destination. With the absence of motorized vehicles, the island's reputation is that of simplification and tranquility. Enjoy a buggy tour of the island before lunch included at The Grand Hotel. The hotel is an island landmark known for having the largest veranda and one of the most elaborate lunch buffets. Free time this afternoon to enjoy some shopping and sit back in a relaxed atmosphere which this island has to offer. Overnight on Mackinac Island, MI. CB, L

Oct. 4 - Breakfast included. This morning we'll take the ferry back to the "real world" but not to any less beauty and excitement. Our travels today take us to Holland, Michigan for that "Dutch" touch. On arrival in Holland visit Dutch Village, This quaint little village authentically recreates a small Dutch town and the lifestyle of 100 years ago. The Dutch architecture, bridges, canals and gardens provide beautiful backgrounds for many attractions, such as the farmhouse and bar, museum, weight house, swing ride and wooden shoe factory. Dinner included with overnight in Holland, MI. CB, D
